The commencement date of the Third Link Investment Managers Pty Limited (TLIM) Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) was 11 March 2008.

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is an important document that is required to be given to you under the requirements of TLIM's AFSL. This FSG provides you with information about the financial services offered by TLIM as outlined below and is intended to help you decide whether to acquire the financial services or the financial products those services relate to. This FSG contains information about how TLIM and its representatives are remunerated, who would be providing the financial services to you and other matters required by law including how complaints against TLIM are dealt with. The authorised representatives set out in this FSG have been authorised by TLIM and TLIM is responsible for the financial services the authorised representatives provide.

TLIM is the authorised licensee and has authorised the distribution of this FSG.

Before investing in the Third Link Growth Fund ARSN 130 165 552 (the Fund), you should be provided with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and Additional Information Booklet (AIB). The PDS and AIB are documents prepared by the issuer of a financial product which contains information about a particular product to help you decide whether to invest in that product. The PDS and AIB will contain information regarding the product, terms and conditions, the costs of the product and fees and significant risks associated with the investment.
